Highlands Bankshares, Inc. Announces First Quarter 2020 Results

Highlands Bankshares, Inc. (OTC: HBSI) announces results of operations for the first quarter of 2020.

Highlands Bankshares, Inc., the parent company of The Grant County Bank and Capon Valley Bank, posted first quarter 2020 earnings of $873,000 or $0.65 per share of common stock outstanding (EPS), compared to $672,000 or $0.50 EPS for the same period of 2019.

On April 14, 2020, the Board of Directors declared a quarterly dividend to shareholders of $0.45 per share. The dividend was payable to all shareholders of record as of April 30, 2020 and was paid on or about May 7, 2020. Based upon the current market price and annualizing the dividends paid to shareholders this quarter, Highlands' current dividend yield is 4.74%

Return on average assets (ROAA) increased in 2020 to 0.82%, as compared to 0.65% in the same period of 2018. The return on average equity (ROAE) increased to 6.43% at March 31, 2020, as compared to 5.09% at March 31, 2019.

Total assets, as of March 31, 2020, increased $10,287,000 to $429,171,000 compared to December 31, 2019. Total liabilities increased $9,904,000 as of March 31, 2020 to $374,116,000 compared to December 31, 2019 as a result of the increase in deposits.

Shareholders' Equity at March 31, 2020 was $55,055,000 or $41.18 per outstanding share, compared to December 31, 2019 of $54,672,000 or $40.90 per outstanding share.

John Van Meter, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the holding company, stated, "We continue to focus on the health and wellbeing of our staff and customers as our country experiences the unprecedented times the COVID-19 pandemic has brought to the world. We are extremely proud to have assisted over two hundred of our small business customers with SBA Paycheck Protection Program loans as part of the CARES act, bringing millions of dollars into our local communities and saving local jobs. In addition, we are working proactively with both consumers and businesses to help them navigate the myriad of issues that business closures and economic uncertainty have wrought in our markets."

"We are looking forward to the reopening of businesses in the communities we serve; however, we understand our lives have all been forever changed. Community banks have always been pillars in the communities they serve, and we will continue to be so during this difficult time."

Highlands Bankshares, Inc. is listed on the OTC market under the symbol HBSI (<http://www.otcmarkets.com>) and is the holding company for The Grant County Bank and Capon Valley Bank. Certain statements in this press release may constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are statements that include projections, predictions, expectations or beliefs about future events or results or otherwise are not statements of historical fact. Such statements are often characterized by the use of qualified words (and their derivatives) such as “expect”, “believe”, “estimate”, “plan”, “project”, “anticipate” or other similar words. Although the company believes that its expectations with respect to certain forward-looking statements are based upon reasonable assumptions within the bounds of its existing knowledge of its business and operations, there can be no assurance that actual results, performance or achievements of the company will not differ materially from any future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Actual future results and trends may differ materially from historical results or those anticipated depending on a variety of factors, including, but not limited to, the effects of and changes in: general economic conditions, the interest rate environment, legislative and regulatory requirements, competitive pressures, new products and delivery systems, inflation, changes in the stock and bond markets, technology, downturns in the trucking, mining, and timber industries, downturns in the housing market affecting manufacturers of household cabinetry and thus, employment, effects of mergers and/or downsizing in the poultry industry in Hardy County, continued challenges in the current economic environment affecting our financial condition and results of operations, continued deterioration in the financial condition of the U.S. banking system impacting the valuations of investments the company has made in the securities of other financial institutions, and consumer spending and savings habits, particularly in the current economic environment. Additionally, actual future results and trends may differ from historical or anticipated results to the extent: (1) any significant downturn in certain industries, particularly the trucking and timber industries are experienced; (2) loan demand decreases from prior periods; (3) the company may make additional loan loss provisions due to negative credit quality trends in the future that may lead to a deterioration of asset quality; (4) the company may not experience significant recoveries of previously charged-off loans or loans resulting in foreclosure; (5) the company is unable to control costs and expenses as anticipated, (6) legislative and regulatory changes could increase expenses (including changes as a result of rules and regulations adopted under the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act); and (7) any additional assessments imposed by the FDIC. The company does not update any forward-looking statements that may be made from time to time by or on behalf of the company.
